BATTLE ART FAIR Contemporary Fine Art

Fri 16 September– Fri 23 September 2011 Open daily 10am – 6pm Admission Free
 At The PowderMills Hotel, Battle TN33 0SP

The Second Battle ART FAIR opens its doors to the public on 16th September 2011 and will again be a showcase for some of the very best Contemporary Fine Art currently being produced by both established and emerging artists in London and the South East today.

Organised by Pure Arts Group, this showcase for Contemporary Fine Art is fast establishing itself as an essential part of the South East arts calendar.

Selected exhibiting artists will include print maker Liz Toole, based out of the Pheonix Studios Brighton, Mary Beaney, founder of Art on the River, Dani Humberstone, owner of The Art Shop, Wadhurst and well known Hastings based textile installation artist Cathryn Kemp, to name but a few. Those of International reputation exhibiting will include Broomhill National Sculpture Prize nominated artist Svetlana K-Lie, Arts Club award winning artist Helen Masacz and Will Taylor PSGFA, not to mention Guy Portelli VPRBA FRBS, Cheryl Culver PSRBA, Brenda Hartill R E and Stephanie Davies-Arai ARBS.

Artists will be working live at the exhibition throughout the weekend 17 – 18 Sept, painting plein air, making on the spot portraits and artisan blacksmith Remuna Pickard will be making sparks fly again this year with his mobile forge!

On Sunday 18th, Kay Green from Earlyworks Press and Anna Copps of YouByYou Books will be running a readers and writers event from 2.30pm. All welcome. No booking required.

Feature exhibitions will be taking place at the Blackshed Gallery, Robertsbridge and The Roche Gallery, High Street, Rye.

Praise for the Battle Contemporary Fine Art Fair 2010 included “unmissable” and “Better than the summer exhibition at the RAI!” and the 2011 Fair looks likely to be even better. Don’t miss it!
