

WHAT'S ON JANUARY

FESTIVALS SPORT ART STAGE MOVIES FESTIVALS

SPORT

Tour de force

Featuring some of cycling's biggest names, the Tour Down Under will see Cadel Evans pedal his wares. Feeling fit? Then why not join the big guns and ride a stage of the event in the Challenge Tour. From 19–26 January; Adelaide; www.tourdownunder.com.au.

SAILING AWAY

With more than 18 countries competing, windsurfers in the Lancelin Ocean Classic are in for the ride of their lives as they try their luck in the gruelling 25-kilometre marathon. The four-day event also features wave sailing and kite surfing. From 9–12 January; Lancelin, WA; www.lancelinoceanclassic.com.au.

Saddle up

There will be more fascinators than you can poke a stick at during the 2014 Magic Millions Raceday on the Gold Coast. It's become one of Australian racing's must-see events, with highlights including Queensland's richest race, the $2 million 2YO Classic, Myer Fashions on the Field, and the $400,000 Oracle Magic Millions Cup, won last year by Triple Elegance. 11 January; Gold Coast; www.magicmillions.com.au.

ALL ABOUT THE WORK

Works by Todd Fuller, Lorraine Guddemi, Jacek Wańkowski, Lezlie Tilley and Al Munro (Object 4, above) will be among the pieces on display at Brenda May Gallery's Sculpture 2014, an annual exhibition that provides a platform for the ever-evolving sculptural art form. From 29 January to 22 February; Sydney; www.brendamaygallery.com.au.

ART

Ritchie pickings

Mona Foma (Mofo) is a fusion of music and art curated by Brian Ritchie of Violent Femmes. This year's eclectic line-up includes Sun Ra Arkestra (below) and Pixar in Concert with the Tasmanian Symphony. From 15–19 January; Hobart; www.mofo.net.au.
